CHITALDRUG DISTRICT.

Notification dated 9th May 1907.

1. It is hereby notified for public information, that the undermentioned Jodi Kasavanhalli village, in the Chitaldrug Taluk, which has been duly attached in satisfaction of arrear of revenue due to Government (as shown in the subjoined statement) by Subbasastri, will be sold by public auction at the place and on the date mentioned in the annexed statement. The sale will commence at 11 A.M. on the date specified, and the village will be knocked down to the highest bidder without reserve.

2. Provided that, when a village is divided into separate recognized vrittis, the Amildar may, at his option, instead of selling the village as a whole, sell each vritti separately.

3. The purchaser will be required to deposit 25 per cent of the purchase money at the time of sale, and if the remainder of the purchase money is not paid within 15 days from the date of sale, the money so deposited shall be liable to forfeiture.

4. When such deposit shall not be made nor the remaining purchase money paid up, the village shall be re-sold at the expense and risk of the 1st purchaser.

5. Persons bidding at the sale may be required to state whether they bid on their own account or as agents and in the latter case, to deposit a written authority signed by their principals; otherwise, their bids may be rejected.

6. The sale will be stayed if the defaulter or any other person acting on his behalf or claiming an interest in the village tenders the full amount of arrears of revenue with interest and other charges before the property is knocked down, or give satisfactory proof that the amount of arrears, etc., has been paid up or furnish security under Section 170 of the Mysore Land Revenue Code.

7. The purchaser will, as soon as the sale is confirmed, be placed in immediate possession of the village, which will be registered in his name, and a certificate of sale signed and sealed by the Deputy Commissioner will be granted therefor. It is to be distinctly understood that the Government are not responsible for errors of description and in estimated extent.

8. Provided, parties deeming themselves agrieved by the sale, shall be at liberty to appeal to the Deputy Commissioner, Chitaldrug, within 30 days from the date of the sale, and the purchase shall be conditional on the final order in such appeal.
